AGPU - 2010

AGPU 2010 will be held September 11th at Lessard Lake Outdoor Education Centre which is located approximately 80 km northwest of Edmonton city limits and 3 km south of Highway 43. From highway 43, take RR 51 south 2.5 km to the entrance to the centre and campground on the right. Or, from Highway 16 take secondary highway 765 north; turn right on TWP RD 554 and then right on RR 51. The entrance to the centre and campground is 500 m on the left. (Information etc. can be found at their website: <http://www.gov.lacsteanne.ab.ca>. Click on Tourism and then follow the link to Lessard Lake Outdoor Ed Centre)

We have possession of the Lodge from September 11, 12:01pm to September 12, 11:59 am, and then it's time for you to get a life, sober up, delouse and get the fuck out!

Registration up to and including September 6th is $35. After that the registration fee increases to $150 and you must give Lucky Stiff a blow job. Don't show up on the day expecting to register; only complete fucking dick heads or hashers from Calgary do that kind of thing.

Registration includes accommodation, gallons of cold beer and coolers, barbeque dinner with all the fixin's, lots of running and falling down (Dame Edna), lots of sex (in your dreams), camp fire sing along, late snack and Saturday night naked hash run. Sunday morning breakfast will be available from 9:00 am until 11:00am.

There are 4 co-ed cabins on site each with a sleeping capacity of 12 for a total of 48 smelly hashers. A reservation for a luxury berth in one of these cabins is included in the price on a first come first served basis when registration is paid. Free tenting is also available on the adjacent field full of mud and cow shit. There are limited "hook-ups" for campers/RV on a first come first served basis also. The lodge has power and a spacious kitchen. Washrooms and coin operated shower facilities are on site. We suggest you bring your own beer mug, flashlight, bug spray, sun screen, condoms, antibiotic cream, tensor bandages, camp chair, a foamy, sleeping bag and pillow and a change of underwear.

Other important events that weekend:

Crowning of the Hash Sprit Award recipient

Abusing of the Hash Idiot Award recipient

Inauguration of the new Mismanagement (Vote Big Rubber for RA)

Don't procrastinate, complete the registration form and return to Dame Edna or Strip Freeze with cash or cheque (made payable to EH3) ASAP:

Please note that there will be NO refunds of the Registration fee for whatever reason
